

JUSTICE SUCCESS STORY

Shazia's Triumph: A Journey of Resilience for the Custody of her Minor

Since the inception of her marriage to Shabbir Ahmad, Shazia was subjected to physical violence and verbal abuse daily. The ordeal of domestic violence forced her to live separately from her husband to save her minor daughter aged 2.5 years. Recently, Shazia's husband visited her residence and forcibly took the minor daughter from her protective care. This is when Shazia's legal journey began with us for the recovery of her minor daughter who was illegally detained by her father.

From the outset, our legal team demonstrated their commitment and passion to Shazia's cause. The dedicated lawyers filed a petition before the Sindh High Court under Section 491 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1908 and raised the plea to set the minor at liberty and her custody should be handed over to Shazia.

However, the case faced a jurisdictional challenge and was transferred from Karachi to Sukkur. Devoted and undeterred, our legal team in Sukkur took the reins, working in close collaboration with our legal team in Karachi.

This seamless cooperation ensured that Shazia's case is managed with the utmost care and professionalism with legal relief provided to her in the case.

Throughout her legal journey, our legal team at Sukkur worked tirelessly to secure the custody of Shazia's minor daughter.

Their relentless diligence and strategic advocacy bore fruit when the court ruled in Shazia's favor, granting her custody of her minor child.

This victory is a testament to the power of collaboration and the unwavering commitment of our advocates in both Karachi and Sukkur. They assured that justice is served to Shazia that she needed and deserved through joint and collective efforts.

Her story is a shining example of how legal aid, advocacy, and representation can transform lives and uphold human rights for marginalized and vulnerable segment of society.

